

2012 Midwest Dance Retreat Celebrating Unity, Building Community

An Annual Celebration of the Midwest Dance Community
March 23rd-25th

At Lindenwood Retreat and Conference Center, Donaldson, Indiana.

Come together with dance leaders and dancers from Minnesota to Pennsylvania to partake in the soaring harmonies and rich diversity of the Dances of Universal Peace. The Midwest Retreat has found a new home that is more centrally located than ever before. This quiet retreat center with woods, meadows and Gilbraith Lake, provides a gentle oasis for dancing, connection and reflection. www.lindenwood.org

Dance Leader and Participation Information

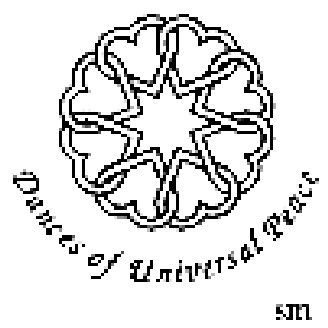

Invitation!

All certified and mentored dance leaders are invited to lead a dance or two at our annual retreat. Please choose one of your favorites from the DUP banquet of dances. The online resource library, the manual, and booklets have many to consider. There will be an opportunity during the afternoon break on Saturday to join with others in a dance circle specifically for leading your own creation or a dance you want to try out or practice leading.

First choice _____
Second _____
Third _____

You can play an instrument for yourself or ask one of our talented musicians to assist you. Bring your instruments along for there are many chances to play together, learn and share. Ya fattah, ya shakur.

Please mail this form with your Payment or you may email it if that is easier for you.
